They witnessed this occurrence at none other than the historic location where Jesus overturned the money changers' tables. As Hite explained to L.A. Marzulli in an interview, he along with several witnesses—including ministry leaders and media personnel—observed the object as it moved in an unusual, swirling pattern. It did not resemble any identifiable craft, more like a large, twisting sheet suspended in the air.

Another unidentified object appeared briefly in a still photograph taken at the time, adding further mystery to the encounter. The spiral-shaped phenomenon ascended and disappeared from sight a few minutes later.

Although the quality of the video footage and still images was limited, the sighting is being classified as a close encounter of the first kind—a visual observation of an unidentified flying object. Those present were intrigued and even unsettled, recognizing the rarity and oddity of what they had witnessed.

Marzulli warns that this UFO phenomenon aligns perfectly with the deception that will lead many away from the truth in the end times. Rather than being extraterrestrial, these manifestations are believed to be part of a spiritual battle unfolding in the skies and on the earth.
