

WATCH: Wheelchair-Bound Man Stops at Absolutely Nothing to Get Baptized

Baptism is not necessary for salvation, but Jesus does command His followers to do it—and it's never too late to do so.

For one unidentified wheelchair-bound man, nothing was going to get in the way of finally making the decision to get baptized—even if it took the help of a nearby medical center and the local fire department!

In the video, the woman filming can be heard saying “Hallelujah” and “To God be the glory!” as the man, only identified as Jack, gets lowered into the water by a lift.
