

WATCH: Will the Rapture Happen in September?

The end of the Shemitah, the last of the four blood moons, and possibly the rapture will all convene in September, according to one man.

Author John Shorey tells Jim Bakker that he expects the rapture to happen in September, but not necessarily this upcoming one. Initially, he thought it would be September 2014.

And by his timeline, The Great Tribulation will begin the following March.

“I also said that if it was going to be, that by the end of 2014, we should have seen some catastrophic events happening,” Shorey says. “And they didn’t happen, which started swinging me over to that The Great Tribulation would start in March 2016.”

Take a look around, at earthquakes and war on marriage.

Is Shorey right? Watch the video and sound off.