

WATCH: You Won't Believe What Fox's Brit Hume Just Said About Abortion

Shockwaves resonated across the country when a leaked video revealed Planned Parenthood was selling fetal body tissues.

It was so offensive that the president of the abortion organization herself apologized for the tone in which Dr. Deborah Nucatola discussed the dismembering of human bodies.

Now, all eyes are on the clinic's atrocities.

"Whatever comes from the revelation about Planned Parenthood and its participation in the trafficking of fetal body parts, those revelations will have achieved one thing," Senior political analyst Brit Humes says.
