

Weird

 Craig Groeschel | Zondervan

Craig Groeschel, senior pastor of and best-selling author of The Christian Atheist, offers another unusual title in Weird: Because Normal Isn't Working.

Asserting that normal people are often overwhelmed with the demands of everyday life and live with strained relationships, Groeschel is out to prove that running with the crowd isn't all its cracked up to be. Applying the principles of God's Word to modern-day issues, including time, money and sex, he invites the reader to follow the narrow path in their Christian walk—and be “weird.”

Challenging readers to consider if they are living a normal life just to fit in, Groeschel invites them to turn and follow Christ. He describes what it means to be a believer, sharing his own struggles and revelations.

This easy-to-read book has a youthful feel, and Groeschel often uses humor as he describes his own “weird” life. Weird will challenge any Christian, young or old, to re-evaluate his or her own lifestyle.
