

Western North Carolina Apocalypse: Anne Graham Lotz Offers Update, Prayer

“In all their affliction He was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them” (Isa. 63:9a, KJV).

My heart is broken. My tears unending. My mind is reeling from the many images coming out of Western North Carolina in the wake of Hurricane Helene. The destruction is beyond belief!

Countless numbers of you have written, texted, emailed and called to express your heartfelt concern and prayers. Thank you!

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Invariably I’m asked, “How is your family?” “How is your father’s house?” Every one of my family who live in the area has been accounted for. My father’s house, as I understand, is intact; however, the road to it is impassable.