

What Cindy Jacobs' Swamp-Draining Vision Means

Recently Cindy Jacobs reported receiving a prophetic vision of a swamp being drained. Now Jim Bakker and the Revelation in the News team are speculating what this vision could mean.

"Could it be that the creatures that are left over in the swamp could be the CIA, could be the FBI, could be the attorney general?" asks Mondo de la Vega.

Is this a sign of the end times? Jim Bakker thinks it could be.

"The Bible says that perilous times will come in the last days," Bakker says. "All the news today screams it out, we are living in the last days."
