

What Happens in the Spirit Realm When We Pray in Tongues?

When we pray in tongues, our spirit prays. We are speaking mysteries to God, and we are building ourselves up in the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 14:2,4).

Malachi Talabi shares a vision and his journaling concerning this revelation below. It is powerful!

What happens in the spirit realm when we pray in the Holy Spirit?

I saw Jesus at a desk, and He had a pen. He dipped it in ink, then started to write down what I was saying in tongues. He finished a page and stamped it with His ring. He then gave the paper to some angels who jumped through the clouds into different periods of time (the future).

Malachi's Journaling About the Vision

"Praying in tongues releases My will. I said, "It is written." The angels perform things that I write. The things you pray to Me in this supernatural language are things that I write. The stamp with My ring is a symbol and mark of My divine endorsement. When you pray in tongues, I write things for the angels to perform. Where do you think your house and job came from? The angels respond to Me; they recognize My signature. Tongues is a way to release My will beyond your knowledge. That is what you saw when the angels jumped into different periods of time.

Here is what I discovered when I looked into a king's ring: In some ancient kingdoms, a king who wanted to mark or secure a document with his seal used his signet ring. He pressed it into softened wax and allowed it to harden into an unbroken seal that bore the mark of his ring. The signet ring represented the honor, authority and personal guarantee of the king, so it was highly valued.

This picture of tongues has made me want to abandon praying in English! {eoa}
