

When Lance Wallnau Thought He Missed God's Voice About Trump

Dr. Lance Wallnau is an internationally recognized speaker, business and political strategist. USA Today reports that he is one of only three evangelical leaders to have accurately predicted Donald Trump's Presidency.

Wallnau's best-selling book, God's Chaos Candidate: Donald J. Trump and the American Unraveling, is credited as being the catalyst that mobilized thousands of Christians to vote for Donald Trump and contributed to Trump's unprecedented election victory.

Well before the election, Wallnau says God spoke to him. "I heard the Lord say Isaiah 45 would be the 45th president," Wallnau said on The 700 Club.

That's when he read about King Cyrus in the book of Isaiah. The prophet wrote, "Though you have not known me, I have anointed you for Israel's sake."

Wallnau believed God wasn't just talking about King Cyrus, but also about Donald Trump, so he wrote his book predicting Trump's victory.

That book was published the same week Access Hollywood aired a video showing Trump making a lewd comment about women. Wallnau thought he had missed God's voice, that Trump was finished.

But he told CBN he then realized God was using that as a humbling moment for Trump, because he was about to be entrusted with the huge responsibility of leading America.
