

Which Obama Family Member Is Voting for Donald Trump?

President Obama's half-brother, Malik Obama, has decided to vote for Donald Trump. That according to a Fox News report.

The Kenyan native said, "I like Donald Trump because he speaks from the heart."

"Make America Great Again is a great slogan. I would like to meet him," he continued.

Malik is a Democrat, but says he has "deep disappointment" in his brother's administration. He considers himself to be a part of the "party of Lincoln."

His "last straw" came when FBI director James Comey recommended not prosecuting Hillary Clinton over her use of private email servers.

"She should have known better as the custodian of classified information," Obama said.

Obama also said he was annoyed at Clinton and his brother for killing his "best friend," Moammar Khadafy. {eoa}
