

Whirlwind

 Nooma | Zondervan

We all face difficult situations and seasons in life that don't make sense. Sometimes a friend's encouragement is all we need to keep going. But what do we do when it's all been said, when there is nothing left for anyone to say? It's actually in this silence that God can finally speak to us.

The Nooma film series from pastor and author Rob Bell is an excellent teaching resource for believers and nonbelievers alike who have reached this point where all the questions have been asked—but not answered. As with most of the Nooma DVDs, Whirlwind doesn't pretend to hold all the answers; it simply aims to spark conversation, believing Jesus ultimately will join in.
