

Why Christians Are Looking for Supernatural Leaders to Follow

In a busy, fast-moving culture where it's easy to get caught up in the public pressure of leadership, we often overlook the value of our private example.

What takes place in private is simply an overflow into our success in the public. If it's not, eventually it will catch up.

People from all walks of life are looking for supernatural leaders who walk as an example for them to follow in character, integrity, balance and emotional and spiritual health.

In episode 11, Pastor Shawn Gabie, co-founder of Kingdom Culture, talks about what it means to be an example as a leader. Get ready for a new challenge within your leadership.
