

Why God Forbids Speaking to the Dead

Seances, Ouija boards and mediums are not fun and games meant for entertainment. The Lord expressly forbids speaking to the dead. Moses writes:

When you enter into the land which the Lord your God gives you, you must not learn to practice the abominations of those nations. There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or who uses divination, or uses witchcraft, or an interpreter of omens, or a sorcerer, or one who casts spells, or a spiritualist, or an occultist, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination to the Lord, and because of these abominations the Lord your God will drive them out from before you. You must be blameless before the Lord your God (Deut. 18:13).

In 1 Samuel when Saul summoned a witch to bring the prophet Samuel back from the dead, End Time Headlines founder Ricky Scaparo says Satan was speaking to Saul.

Yet still Hollywood, and even local households, are full of men and women who do not heed this warning.

Some people may say this idea is all fantasy and a little indulgence won't hurt, but "You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and drink from the cup of demons," Scaparo says (see 1 Cor. 10:21).

What can happen if the abomination goes ignored? Watch the video to see.
