

Why God is Laughing at Their World Domination Plans

They will make the greatest bid for world domination in history.

It is no longer just armies that threaten freedom—it is corporations and corrupt politicians. I believe that evil in all of its vile colors is even now rising to try to crush our freedom and our churches.

They wield astonishing power. They have mountains of money, unlimited connections and enormous influence. Will they destroy nations and borders? Will they drive the church underground? Is it possible that they can indeed plow under the entire moral foundation of America, and even the world?

Barack Obama, George Soros and Bill Gates have plans—plans that could envelope the world. They are feverishly putting the finishing touches on strategies to redefine the human race. They are the apostles of the “new normal.” Conspirator number one, Obama, wishes to rule through a puppet president. Soros, the second one is funding and managing global anarchy. The last one named, Bill Gates, seems to be pinning his hope on a mandatory vaccine.

Pandemic, economic collapse and rioting, provide the perfect situation for men to seize power. It is right out of the book most favored by the Deep State: Saul Alinsky’s “Rules For Radicals.” The proof of their power grab? The illegal shutdown of churches. The elites who believe they are on a higher level of wealth and power, also believe, “Never waste a crisis.” And if there is no crisis available—you create one.

This is not just about money. This trio despises Christianity and Israel. They are working to rid the world of the laws of God. They are described in Psalm 2:2-3: “The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord and against His anointed, saying, 'Let us break their bonds in pieces and cast away their cords from us.'"

They are on schedule for world domination. But what is God doing?

Actually, God is laughing. He is laughing at their plans. Back to Psalm 2, in verse 4 it states, "He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall hold them in derision." God laughs and mocks their plans. He heaps divine ridicule on them.

But God's dealings do not stop there: verse 5, "Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, and distress them in His deep displeasure..." God is not only laughing at their plans—He will wreck their plans. His wrath will be poured out on their vain imaginings.

The word backfire does not begin to cover the next act of God against men who try to bury the church and set up their own kingdom. The nations are the express inheritance of Jesus Christ. Psalm 2 goes on to say in verses 7-8. "The Lord has said to Me, 'You are My Son, today I have begotten You. Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession.'"

The end times are not happening to me. I am happening to the end times!

Every believer shares in this final victory. Every believer is more powerful and purposeful than they know. We should shake off all fear and helplessness, and then confess the end times are not happening to me. I am happening to the end times!

Barack Obama, George Soros Bill Gates—you would do well to abandon your course. A mighty God protects us. The devil whom you serve is already doomed, and he will take you three down with him.

My final warning is this, gentlemen—beware of what God plans to do about your plans.

Psalm 2:9-10, “You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter’s vessel. Now therefore, be wise, O kings; be warned, you judges of the earth.”

But how should you and I react to this moment? We can fear and hide or we can stand and watch God give us weapons of supernatural effectiveness; words to preach that can’t be resisted and miracle provision to finish our course with joy. These are dark days, but God has not forsaken us. Rejoice! God is laughing at their threats!

Mario Murillo rose from poverty in the Mission District of San Francisco. After being revolutionized by Christ, he felt a call to the University of California at Berkeley. His international ministry was launched after a four-day conference in San Jose, California, extended for six months with a total attendance of nearly 250,000 people. Since then, Mario’s voice has been heard by millions around the world, bringing a message that zeroes in on the hurts of society. He presents Christ clearly and intelligently, and openly declares the power of Jesus to totally transform a life. His simple declaration: Come and see. Christ has the power to end addiction, racism, violence and disease.
