

Why God Will Soon Baptize Us With Fire

Healing minister Katherine Ruonala asked God for a baptism of fire—and she got it.

Now, she travels the world speaking and sharing and witnessing incredible miracles.

But she is not without her heartache. The minister says signs and wonders often follow difficult seasons in our lives.

As America grapples with police brutality, race riots and assassinations of law enforcement, we could really use God's intervention.

Watch the video to see what Ruonala says.