

Why These 70 Nations Stand With Israel on Its 70th Birthday

Yom Ha'atzmaut (Independence Day) began on Wednesday night, with the official ceremony kicking off the celebration taking place on Mount Herzl, in Jerusalem.

For people around the world, the state of Israel is a special place, and its well-being is of utmost importance.

Nations from around the world are proud of Israel's achievements over the last 70 years and support those who continue to build and defend Israel.

Watch as 70 nations show their love for the Jewish state on its 70th birthday!