

Why This Woman's Courage Should Be Imitated by All Believers

The enemy targets us from all sides when we choose to follow Jesus with all our hearts. Not only is their demonic push back, but many people in our lives don't understand our zeal and the decisions we make to glorify Christ and live a separated and holy life in this world.

This requires courage from the deepest parts of our being to stand and keep standing in these defining moments of destiny.

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast, Michael Lombardo speaks with Madison Prewett, who faced ridicule and opposition while she was a contestant on the national television series The Bachelor. There, she stood for purity and chastity before marriage when everyone who surrounded her did not.

In moments like these, you can take the easy way out and conform to the current of the culture. Or you can stand in God's strength and righteousness, choosing your God-given purpose over instant gratification and the applause of man. The latter is by no means the easy way, but it is the Christ way.

Tune in to learn from Michael and Madison's stories of developing an inner strength that is dynamic and supernatural to aid you in your everyday walk with the Lord.
