Why Today’s Tumultuous World Needs the Deliverer Prophets

Now is the time more than ever that we need some deliverer-type Moses prophets who are willing to put themselves in harm’s way for a people who do not have voices for themselves.

I live in California, and there are definitely a whole generation of people here who just accept what the Pharoahs over the land are decreeing.

Gender is being changed to mean whatever fluid expression of gender you are feeling is OK. Everything is OK. The enemy seeks to shut down the voice of the fathers and mothers that brings identity to the family.

The enemy is trying to be a father to the next generation. He is a father of lies and has nothing in store but to kill and destroy everything that is created in God’s image.

Every generation has had to confront the enemy, and there have always been powerful Moses-type leaders who were willing to say yes to being a voice for the cause of injustice in their day.

These voices are unlikely heroes. They are not necessarily the most famous prophets or even those others know, but one commonality in every prophet who carries a deliverance anointing like Moses is that they have a father’s/mother’s heart.

Fathers and mothers are willing to fight the fights for the next generation and willing to put themselves in harm’s way so the next generation can be free.

Fathers and mothers don’t live with self-preservation. They are provoked to not just put up with the conversations others are accepting. They are not going to put up with demonic legislation.

But kingdom deliverers are not fighting against flesh and blood. They are not fighting a political battle. They are not there to just put themselves into conversations about politics. They are there to help people see the King's agenda is not being valued.

They are provoked to make the kingdoms of this world belong to the kingdom of our God.

They won't be silenced. They won't be shut up.

They have love, but love doesn't mean they don't stand for truth. They stand for truth and find a way to rally a people around what they are provoked to see happen.

God is looking for some deliverer-type prophets who are like Moses: humble but powerful, willing to allow a supernatural demonstration and show the world that God is real.

They are prophets who are needed today more than ever. It is time for the deliverers to rise up. It is time as we step toward the year 2022 that the anointing of the deliverers gets released.

Join me on my podcast to learn more about this anointing and how you can access it. You will feel the fire of God and be provoked to step into a grace that puts you in the center of what God is up to today. {eoa}
