

Will 6 Million Christians Demand an Apology From NBC for This?

Rev. Bill Keller, a leading world Internet evangelist has put together a petition drive demanding NBCUniversal apologize to “born-again Bible-believing Christians” for mocking and demeaning their faith beliefs.

Rev. Bill Keller has established a petition on his website that he is asking all “born-again Bible-believing Christians” to sign. The NBC petition demands NBCUniversal apologize on all of their media properties for mocking and demeaning Christians, as well as not giving equal representation for the views of born-again Bible-believing Christians on their programs when they are discussing Biblical sins such as homosexuality, the perversion of Biblical marriage between a man and a woman, and the murder of innocent babies in the womb.

In a recent media interview, Keller stated: “It is time for Christians to start speaking out and taking a stand for our faith. As someone who has spent the past 16 years reaching out to the masses outside of the four walls of the church, ministering and sharing the gospel with the lost and hurting who are not Christians, and sharing a biblical worldview on the issues of the day in non-Christian media outlets, the reason this nation is in spiritual free fall and in total rebellion to God our Creator is because the church has created its own subculture and left the masses for the wolves of Satan to devour!”

Keller went on: “NBCUniversal is a prime example of a major media conglomerate that without shame or concern, not only promotes what Bible-believing Christians identify as sin, but in its programming daily mocks and demeans Christians with their on-air hosts and guests often referring to “born-again Bible-believing Christians” as intolerant bigots, hate-mongers and fools for believing the Truth of the Bible.”

Keller concluded: “The few and very fair and modest demands we have made of NBCUniversal will tell the nation how much they truly believe their statement issued in separating themselves from Donald Trump, stating they afford respect and dignity for ALL people. The fact is, less than 2 percent or approximately 6 million people in this nation choose to engage in perverted and unnatural sexual relations with people of the same sex. If a petition of only 200,000 moved NBCUniversal to end their relationship with Trump, it will be interesting to see how they respond to what I believe will end up being 6 million-plus born-again, Bible-believing Christians!”
