

Will You Choose George Soros or the Biblical Cyrus?

This election, Americans have a choice between the biblical Cyrus or George Soros, Lance Wallnau tells Revelation in the News.

“The church has forgotten that it’s main commission isn’t simply the evangelization of the lost, but the discipleship of nations,” Wallnau says.

While the church has focused on planting churches, billionaire Soros has focused on funding the takeover of the American mind, Wallnau says.

“As a result, we’ve been holding the fort with an end-times theology of gloom, largely because we’ve surrendered the territory Soros has taken on making discipleship of the nation,” Wallnau says.
