

Will Your Kids Make the Right Decisions When Leaving for College?

Sending children off to college today is filled with excitement and challenges many of us never faced in our day. Our permissive society and cancel culture try to eradicate traditional standards regarding sexuality and moral purity.

A “USA Today” national survey of young Americans found a whopping 76% of 18-31 year-olds believe living together before marriage is acceptable. Once away from home, many hook up in a living arrangement with their newly discovered boyfriend or girlfriend, and they enjoy the conveniences.
