

Woman Says Witches Snatched Her Out of Bethel Church to Perform Ritual Satanic Abuse

One woman tells Sid Roth witches snatched her out of a church service to perform ritual satanic abuse.

In a video posted recently the It's Supernatural host revisits his time at Bethel nearly 20 years ago, where he interviewed person after person with nearly unreal stories about how God was moving.

In the report, Roth says the area surrounding Bethel once played host to 26 cults.

“Although the devil has power, inside this church, Bethel church, is an explosion of God’s power,” Roth says.

God’s power radically set one woman free from Satanism. Watch the video to see her story.
