

Women in Ministry: Did Jesus Make a Mistake?

Can women really serve in any area of ministry? Why is it so crucial to ensure both women and men are empowered to pursue their God-given callings? In this conversation John and Lisa share even more about the role of women in the church, going back to the early church as an example to follow.

John and Lisa Bevere, founders of Messenger International, are best-selling authors and speakers.