

Would Christian TV Dare to Air This Bible Truth?

When Pastor Shane Idleman looks at the religious leaders of the Bible, he says he doesn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Of all the tragedies, this might take the cake," Idleman says of the Pharisees.

But how many of us are modern-day Pharisees, saying all the right things but lacking the truth in our hearts?

"The atheists will realize that they were wrong. The agnostic will realize that there is only one way. The doubter and scoffer will all be silenced, and those who continue in their sin will know why they didn't enter, but this person will be shocked."

Talk about tough love. Watch the video to see more.
