

You've Never Heard an Atheist-to-Christian Story Quite Like This

Blinded at 14 in a freak accident, with a father and sister who both committed suicide in part because of her blindness, Debra Cooper was at the lowest of lows. Or so she thought—and then she got cancer. All seemed lost, but the whirlwind was just beginning. During a crazy period of around 24 hours, she went from hardcore atheist to full-fledged believer.

It's truly a one-of-a kind testimony, and she shared her incredible story with Faithwire's Kirsten Haglund, host of The Sonder Podcast.

Click here for the rest of the story from our content partners at Faithwire!