

Your Bold Declaration for God's Healing Power

I will boldly declare my healing, even when the attack of the enemy bears down hard and the reports shout death, I will not fear. I put my trust in my God:

"Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly beyond all that we ask or imagine, according to the power that works in us, to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen" (Eph. 3:20-21).

Like Abraham, I make a quality decision to believe "God ... who raises the dead, and calls those things that do not exist as though they did" (Rom. 4:17b). I boldly declare His abundant life, healing, power and supernatural strength to overtake my body.

I bind myself to the power of the blood of Jesus to take down this illness, to heal me, to re-create this physical body of mine, to renew my strength. According to the healing words of Isaiah 40:29-31, because I wait upon the Lord, I will mount up with wings like eagles, I will run and not be weary, I will walk and not faint, in Jesus' name I declare, amen.

And this day I boldly declare God's promise about my healing that "I shall not die, but I shall live and declare the works of the Lord" (Ps. 118:17). {eo}
