

Your Future Is in Your Seed

Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. –Mark 9:23

My heart breaks when I see someone suffering in physical pain, because I know the Bible provides the answer. I am troubled when I see someone bound by addiction, because I know the Bible provides the answer. I ache when I see Christians struggling financially, living from paycheck to paycheck, barely able to get by, unable to bless the kingdom of God as God intends—because I know the Bible provides the answer!

Determine today to change your future with the seed you sow, because your future is tied to your seed. Any seed that is not planted remains the same. Take the seed God has placed in your life and sow it in faith. Your past will determine your present and your future unless you sow new seed today. What you sow today will shape your future. Allow God to use what you sow to bring you from where you are to where God wants you to be. Take God at His Word and let go of the things you are holding onto so tightly.

Determine to take a step of faith beyond anything you have ever secure a future greater than you can imagine.

Jesus, empower me to sow seeds of love, kindness, good works, service, compassion,
mercy, and giving today so that my harvest tomorrow might bear the good fruit of Your Spirit. Amen.
