

You're Not Lost

And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? —Luke 8:45

Although the ministry of Christ was always in a crowd, His perception was individual. He did not see the crowd; He saw the person. As desperation screamed in the ear of the woman with the issue of blood, she reached out and touched the hem of Jesus' garment. He stopped abruptly in the midst of the crowd and asked, "Who touched hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me" (Luke 8:46).

Regardless of the crowd, you are not lost. You may feel no one knows your name, but Jesus knows your name. You see, there's something finished that you have to begin. And though the work of God may have begun in your life, God is not through with you yet.

He can see you. He knows you. He is acquainted with your uprising and with your sitting down. He has numbered the very hairs of your head. You are not lost in the crowd.

Jesus, I know that I am special and significant in Your sight.
I desire to walk with You every moment and to follow Your voice in every decision. Amen.
