

'23 Minutes in Hell' Author: Wake Up, Christians!

Every Christian today needs to ask himself if he is asleep in any area of his faith.

The disciples walked closely with Jesus and yet, on the night He would be betrayed, they were oblivious to the darkness that was coming. They were in His presence day after day and somehow they did not know what He required of them when the darkest time was at hand.

How much more easily could we succumb to the same mistakes and be lulled to sleep by not keeping close company with Jesus?