

'23 Minutes in Hell' Author: Why Did God Send Me to Hell?

Of all the things I'm asked about my terrifying hell experience, one prominent question is this: "Why did God send you to hell?"

I had been a devoted Christian for 28 years. I never asked God to show me hell. I never asked for this experience.

Many people express that they wish God would give them a vision of hell. They believe that if everyone just received a vision, then all would receive Jesus and be saved.

A vision like mine changes the course of your life. There is great responsibility with this kind of awareness.

Are people really prepared for that?
