

Jenny Weaver's Summer of Souls Mass Baptisms Begin: 'This is Revival!'

God is doing great things in this generation.

Over the Mother's Day weekend, Jenny Weaver hosted the "Summer of Souls" mass baptism at Clearwater Beach, Florida. From Core Revival Center, Holy Gabbana, Gabriel Storm, Angi Magoulis and more, powerful speakers came out to share the message of the gospel that God is ready to heal, restore and redeem every single part of the world's brokenness.

"God moved so amazing!! It was incredible to have tons of people go out for hours to evangelize the ENTIRE beach," Weaver writes on Instagram. "We had hundreds show up for baptisms , tons of salvations and even a precious women began to hear my voice in her ear after being born deaf and never you to everyone who came and the multiple ministries that partnered with us s!!! THIS IS REVIVAL!!"

As the waves rolled onto the shores of Clearwater Beach, so did the tide of revival—proof that God is moving mightily in this generation, calling His people into a harvest like never before. What took place was more than a weekend event; it was a prophetic demonstration of God's power to heal, restore and awaken hearts.

From salvations and deliverances to the miraculous healing of a woman born deaf, every moment pointed to the urgency and glory of this divine move. This is not just a season—this is the beginning of a soul-winning movement fueled by heaven itself.
