

Joseph Z: Prophetic Breakthrough by the Lion's Roar

Perhaps there is something stirring in the supernatural realm at this very moment.

In the middle of chaos happening around the world, from the trouble in the Middle East to planned protests across America, it seems as though we are diving deeper into the end times and further away from a heart of repentance. However, Christ always gives us the victory, something prophetic voice Joseph Z described at the Voice of God conference in Dallas.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

One of the first things that Z talked about was seeing nuclear activity happening, which he and others at the conference prayed against.