

Rev. James Robison Dies: LIFE Outreach International Founder Passes Away at 82

The world is mourning the loss of Rev. James Robison, the founder of LIFE Outreach International, whose decades-long ministry impacted millions through evangelism, humanitarian outreach and Christian television.

LIFE Outreach International announced Robison's death on Sunday, May 17, in a statement shared on social media. The exact cause of death had not been announced at the time of publishing.