

The Simple Secret to Growing in Spiritual Authority

Many believers search relentlessly for ways to grow in their authority in the Spirit. But Streams Ministries President John E. Thomas says the answer is simple—and it all goes back to Luke 16:10: “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.”

Watch the video to discover the key Jesus offers to greater authority. These profound truths can radically change your life—and your ministry.
