"She is bishop of Washington in the Episcopal Church, which the Church of England in the United States," Carlson says. "I think it's probably a good thing for people to see what it's really like."

Tucker on the Woke Episcopalian female Bishop who lectured President Trump: "This is not a Christian organization at all. This is a very angry, hateful organization run by dreadfully unhappy middle age lesbians. It's Pagan."

"This is not a Christian organization at all. It's a very angry, hateful organization run by dreadfully unhappy, middle-aged lesbians," he continues. "Only by showing that in public can it ever be forced to reform. So, I actually thought it was a hopeful thing that the rest of America, not just we, Episcopalians, could see what it's actually like, which is repulsive."

Carlson considers the modern Episcopalian church to be “totally non-Christian” and “pagan.”

This point gives oodles of context of what we’ve been seeing in recent years in the modern church. Instead of following biblical principles, many churches have fallen into the idolatry of the world, seeking the approval of humans instead of God. Let’s pray for churches who are leading people astray, that they would repent and come to Christ, changing their heart and ways.
