

Was Kim Clement's 'Hypnotic November' Prophecy About the Rise of Zohran Mamdani?

As we look at prophetic words regarding the current state of our nation, is it possible that an old Kim Clement prophecy about a coming "hypnotic November" just may have predicted the election of New York City's incoming mayor, Zohran Mamdani?

"There shall be a lulling," Clement stated. "Hypnosis puts you to sleep. God said, 'This that is going to happen is going to be mesmerizing during November and December.'"

He then noted that, based on the events which will happen at this time of year, people will understand their need to call upon the Lord.

"People in this nation shall look and say, 'We have to call upon the name of the Lord because Islam has not only come from the outside, but from the inside,'" Clement prophesied.

□ So New York just brought in Islam to govern their November.

Kim spoke of Hypnotic November and how Islam would come from the inside.

Will you finally call upon the name of the Lord? Will you see that He is the way?

Clement then discussed how God had heard the prayers of the nation's forefathers, and that when people chant and cheer for the Lord's riddance in America, it will not happen.

Now that the November elections are over and Democrats have taken power in many places, this prophecy is back in the forefront. New York City's incoming mayor, Zohran Mamdani, is outspoken about his Islamic faith and socialist agenda, and Ghazala Hashmi became the first Muslim woman to serve as Virginia's lieutenant governor. Islam is indeed coming not just from outside America, but is now taking center stage within it.
