

Why Christians Should Skip Hollywood's Latest Blockbuster

Liam Neeson's new action film, The Commuter, may lull in viewers with its "Taken on a train" vibe. But The Commuter packs plenty of violence and language—including misusing the Lord's name—into its PG-13 rating. Get the full rundown with this Plugged In video review.