

10 Governors Agree: Biden Has Caused ‘Humanitarian Crisis, Chaos’

Ten Republican governors visited the border on Wednesday, where they unveiled a 10-point plan to end President Joe Biden’s immigration crisis at the nation’s southern border by stopping the flow of illegal immigrants.

“President Joe Biden has caused a humanitarian crisis and chaos on our border,” Gov. Greg Abbott of Texas said.

The governors chose to meet in Mission, Texas, which is part of the Rio Grande Valley region in south Texas. The “Valley,” as local residents refer to it, has seen more than 500,000 people illegally enter the U.S. from Mexico in the past 12 months, and the large majority crossed after Biden took office, according to The Washington Examiner.

The governors called on Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris to take the following actions:

- Finish building the border wall that was halted mid-construction.
- Require those seeking asylum to remain in Mexico instead of being allowed into the U.S.
- Prohibit the entry of anyone who potentially poses a health risk.

As CBN News has reported, while the Trump administration built about 450 miles of new barriers along the southern border, Biden immediately halted construction when he took office, leaving gaps that rendered most of the border wall incomplete.

Critics say Biden inherited a solution when he took office and canceled it, reviving the border crisis that was finally coming under control. Now 1 million migrants are expected to surge into the U.S. this year alone.

Gov. Ricketts said Biden needs to provide more money for the border, including Customs and Border Patrol, the National Guard, and for the courts to process immigration cases more quickly

“We are here today to shine a light on what is going on here at the southern border and how it is impacting all of our states, not just the state of Texas,” he said.
