

2011 Prophecy of 2-Term Trump Presidency Fulfilled

Back in 2011, Mark Taylor heard from the Lord that Donald Trump would someday be president. At the time, this seemed completely out of the blue, but now that Trump has just been re-elected as the 47th president of the United States, the puzzle pieces seem to be coming together.

"I didn't know a lot about Donald Trump. I just knew he was a very powerful businessman that had built this empire, and he was toying with the idea of running for president at the time," Taylor told CBN in an interview uploaded in May of 2020.

Taylor says he was listening to Donald Trump speak in an interview when God spoke to him and told him Trump would be the future president.

"I just heard the voice of the Lord say, 'You're hearing the voice of a president,'" said Taylor. "You know He was saying that basically America was going to prosper like never before. Israel and America, the ties between the two countries would be stronger than ever before. The dollar would be the strongest that it's ever been."

When asked if it would be an eight-year presidency, Taylor said, "absolutely."

"There's gonna be no doubt; he's gonna sail right in for the second term," Taylor said.

Another interesting part of Taylor's prophecy is that God would make a clean sweep in the media.

"God's going to clean out the news media," said Taylor. "You know, God is looking for His people right now, His millionaires and His billionaires basically to come in and start investing in these places and buying them out, taking them over. God's going to rebuild them and restore them because there's no spirit of truth in them right now."

With the rise of leaders like Elon Musk, who supported Trump and bought out the social media giant X (formerly Twitter), could we already be seeing another part of this prophecy coming to pass?

Taylor's prophecy also went further and spoke directly about the future of the church.

"The army of God will have victory after victory after victory," said Taylor.
