

2022 Prophecy Fulfilled: Iran, Trump and a Presidential Assassination Plan

A 2022 prophecy by Joseph Z has been fulfilled as Iran denies claims of an assassination plot against former president Donald Trump.

Using his white board, Z meticulously draws the number "45" with "JFK" next to it, explaining that what happened to JFK is what some will want to happen to the 45th president, Donald Trump.

"There's other nations that they will blame if the can," Z says as he writes "Iran" and "assassinate" on the white board.

"They want to bring that kind of narrative to the table where they begin to say, bye-bye...not only do we stand against it, I say in the name of Jesus, no evil will befall this nation on our leadership," Z prays.

Z believes it the spirit of the anti-Christ that wants to take out the former president.

"This is something I saw, like they would 'JFK' the scenario exactly how he was treated, they were trying to do that in an assassination attempt, and then afterwards they were going to blame Iran," Z says.

Now, we are seeing news break that the former president recently had his security increased because of potential

Iranian threats against his life. Iran is vehemently denying any claims that they have been plotting against Trump. However, Iran does plan to take legal action against Trump for the 2020 strike which killed Qasem Soleimani.

Nassar Kanaani, the spokesperson for the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, rejected claims of threats made against Trump in a statement.

“[Iran] strongly rejects any involvement in the recent armed attack on Trump or claims about Iran’s intention for such action, considering such allegations to have malicious political motives and objectives,” Kanaani said in a statement obtained by The Hill.

With more details coming to light and prophecies being fulfilled, it’s clear that the assassination attempt on Trump was much more than a physical attack, but rather a sign of something significant happening in the spiritual realm.
