

5 Things to Know About the Democratic Party

For Christians, it can be hard to determine who to vote for when it comes to election season. However, as the two parties become more and more divided, there are critical things to understand about the Democratic Party that can no longer be ignored.

- The Democratic Party favors the end of womanhood as we know it.

As Crosswalk noted, this party positions themselves in favor of the Equality Act which will include the terms “sexual orientation” and “gender identity” so that LGBTQ+ identifying persons cannot be denied the chance to use “...a shared facility, including a restroom, a locker room, and a dressing room, that is in accordance with the individual’s gender identity.”

This would essentially mean that those with poor intentions as well could loophole themselves to get into women’s spaces to either bring harm or simply to dominate in the sport’s arena.

The DNC is a perfect example of a place where “female” is being questioned as some of the women’s restrooms were turned into “all-gender” restrooms for the sake of the LGBTQ+ community.

- The Democratic Party idolizes abortion.

The Democratic Party idolizes abortion. Before the start of the DNC, Planned Parenthood offered free abortions, vasectomies, along with “emergency contraceptives.” Abortion is the altar on which the party will sacrifice themselves. During Hillary Clinton’s speech at the DNC she clung to the promise that Kamala Harris would implement more “abortion rights” across the country.

Not only does the Democratic Party idolize abortion, but they believe taxpayers should be the ones to pay for it. As Crosswalk noted, Democrats favor removing the Hyde Amendment, which currently keeps the government from using federal money to pay for abortions.

- The Democratic Party’s frontrunner is heavily influenced by her pastor’s Anti-American speech.

That’s right, Kamala Harris’ pastor has a history for speaking against the nation that he lives in. As Charisma previously reported, Amos Brown is believed to be one of the very first people Harris spoke with after Biden dropped out of the presidential race. Brown is known for having blamed the U.S. for the 9/11 attacks, with even having Nancy Pelosi saying his statements were too far in the wrong direction.

- The Democratic Party wants to see a two-state solution happen in Israel.

While Democrats have vowed to support Israel against Hamas, they also believe in creating a two-state solution. As Crosswalk reported, the White House has previously stated it would like to see a “negotiated two-state solution that ensures Israel’s future as a Jewish and democratic state with recognized borders and upholds the right of Palestinians to live in freedom and security in a viable state of their own.”

However, the concern with this is that it could allow terror groups like Hamas to plot, plan and work toward extinguishing the nation of Israel. We must remember the biblical warning that those who bless Israel will be blessed, while those who curse Israel will be cursed.

- The Democratic Party seeks to indoctrinate children away from their parents.

We’ve seen countless stories of public schools, particularly in blue states and areas where children are encouraged to go about hiding sexual orientation from their parents, being convinced by other adults that they aren’t actually boys or girls but the opposite of how they were born.

As The Hill reported, Harris’ VP running mate, Tim Walz, has made some drastic decisions to turn Minnesota into a “trans refuge.” In fact, Walz signed a law which essentially can take children out their parents’ houses if parents are not in agreement with their child receiving horrific “gender-affirming care.”

As this election cycle comes upon us, Christians must think very carefully and critically about the kind of nation they want to live in and the type of future they want to leave to the next generation.
