

50 Days into America's 'Golden Age': What You Need to Know

Now that we have officially crossed the first 50 days into Donald Trump's second administration, here are some of the top things you need to know about what he's completed so far, and the prophetic implications of what it all means.

From the get-go, Trump publicly acknowledged God as the reason he was re-elected.

In his inaugural speech, Trump said that he was "...saved by God to make America great again," and that our "golden age has just begun."

Trump's inauguration day Bibles caused quite a stir.

Because the president didn't place his hand on the two Bibles that Melania Trump brought with her, some criticized Trump while others noticed that the ceremony was a bit rushed as Chief Justice Roberts began before Melania came over with the Bibles.

Trump has gone all-in with executive orders to undo the damage from the Biden administration.

Trump has signed various executive orders, from the dismantling of DEI in the government and the ending of men competing in women's sports, to the signing of the 'Gulf of America,' the president has only begun the signing of these executive orders.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The president has created a Faith Office to protect Christianity in the United States.

During the National Prayer Breakfast, the president announced that creation of the White House Faith Office, which is led by Pastor Paula White-Cain. The goal is to work alongside Attorney General Pam Bondi to ensure religious liberty in our nation.

//

The Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) led by Elon Musk has not only upset Democrats, it continues to uncover wasteful spending.

From social security fraud and USAID's handouts to corrupt organizations, Trump's new initiative continues to reveal the ways our tax dollars have been wasted.

The president strengthening the economy, including a return to tariffs.

Trump has planned a series of tariffs to shift trade policies back to favoring U.S. businesses and the overall economy.

Hamas is finally releasing hostages.

Hamas is releasing hostages after Trump said on social media that Hamas must "Release all of the hostages it is over for you." This is the kind of scenario we never would have seen under Biden's leadership.

Trump had a showdown with Ukrainian president Volodymyr Zelenskyy.

Trump, Vance and Zelenskyy had a showdown at the White House, with Zelenskyy being called out for his ungratefulness for the American aid his nation has received over the years in their struggle against Russia.

Trump announced that the U.S. will take over Gaza, relocate

Palestinians and reconstruct it into a place of peace and tourism.

While this take has been controversial for many, if this were to happen, it truly would signify biblical prophecy come to life, highlighting the spiritual strongholds behind the area.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

The president signed the Laken Riley Act.

Trump signed into action the Laken Riley Act, which directly impacts the illegal immigration issue in America, allowing migrants to be detained for theft-related crimes.

President Trump continues to discuss expanding America's borders, fixing the illegal immigration problem.

The president is discussing expansion into Greenland, and U.S. control over the Panama Canal, while resolving the broken immigration system and preventing the dangers uncontrolled illegals pouring into the country.

He continues to promise the release of classified documents.

From the JFK and MLK files, to the Epstein files, the Trump administration is serious about one thing: Bringing what was in the dark into the light.

We will see if there truly is gold at Fort Knox.

Planning a visit to Fort Knox with Musk, Trump will look into whether or not the depository is filled with gold, or not, which could cause quite an economic stir if it is found to be empty.

Trump opened his first cabinet meeting with prayer.

Having HUD Secretary Scott Turner pray for the administration, the former megachurch pastor asked for God's anointing to be with the team.

So, what does this all mean?

Halfway to the proverbial "first 100 days" in office, it is clear that a divine shift is taking place. Those with spiritual discernment see that we are in a kairos moment—a time of God-ordained acceleration, exposing darkness and setting the stage for biblical prophecy to unfold.

From his inaugural declaration that he was "saved by God to make America great again" to his commitment to dismantling ungodly policies, Trump's presidency is not merely a political event—it is a spiritual assignment. His swift executive actions to undo the moral compromise of the previous administration signal a return to righteousness. The removal of DEI, the protection of women's sports and the establishment of the White House Faith Office are not just policy shifts; they are a course corrections for the soul of the nation.

Additionally, Trump's bold stance in the Middle East—his declaration that the U.S. will reconstruct Gaza—must be viewed through the lens of prophecy. The realignment of Israel and surrounding nations is a clear sign that we are moving closer to the fulfillment of end-times events. Could this be the pivotal moment we need for the rebuilding of the third temple?

The second 50 days will be even more telling. Will America fully return to God? Will the church rise to its calling?

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Abby Trivett is content development editor for Charisma Media.