

7 Reasons President Trump Should Win the Nobel Peace Prize

President Donald Trump has been working hard to ensure that peace across the world is finally happening. Now, with the announcement of the Nobel Peace Prize coming tomorrow, Friday, Oct. 10, could Trump finally have a shot at winning the greatest award in the world? Here are 7 reasons why the president should win this phenomenal prize.

Trump helped to bring unprecedented peace to the Middle East.

After helping to mediate a historic peace deal between Israel and Gaza, both the people of Israel and Gaza were elated. As the New York Post reported, the two groups of people were found celebrating in the streets. In Gaza the people could be heard chanting: "Donald Trump! Donald Trump!" In Tel Aviv the people cheered: "Nobel Prize to Trump." This cease-fire plan ends a two-year war that started after Hamas invaded Israel on Oct. 7, 2023.

The president guided peaceful negotiations between Armenia and Azerbaijan.

After hosting the diplomats of these two nations, Trump said that "As president, my highest aspiration is to bring peace and stability to the world."

Donald Trump helped to broker a peace agreement between the Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda.

The president mediated the situation between the two nations, getting the leaders of the two countries to sign a peace agreement back in June.

In an interview reported by Roll Call, the president said that “We’re here today to celebrate a glorious triumph, and that’s what it is for the cause of peace. And this is a long time waiting, the signing of a historic peace agreement between the Democratic Republic of Congo and the Republic of Rwanda.”

India and Pakistan finally have a cease-fire with one another due to Trump’s efforts.

The two countries have long-been in conflict with one another, and Trump’s ability to bring peace to these two nations is far from a small feat.

“We stopped a nuclear conflict,” Trump said. “I think it could have been a bad nuclear war. Millions of people could have been killed.”

Trump brought peace between Cambodia and Thailand.

According to the White House, after discussions with the president of the United States, the two nations agreed upon an “immediate and unconditional ceasefire.”

Egypt and Ethiopia have found temporary peace due to Trump’s efforts.

On Truth Social, the president wrote, “Another case is Egypt and Ethiopia, and their fight over a massive dam that is having an effect on the magnificent Nile River. There is peace, at least for now, because of my intervention, and it will stay that way!"

Trump helped to bring a cease-fire between Israel and Iran.

The president took to social media to make this massive announcement, where he said:

Officially, Iran will start the CEASEFIRE and, upon the 12th Hour, Israel will start the CEASEFIRE and, upon the 24th Hour, an Official END to THE 12 DAY WAR will be saluted by the World. During each CEASEFIRE, the other side will remain PEACEFUL and RESPECTFUL. On the assumption that everything works as it should, which it will, I would like to congratulate both Countries, Israel and Iran, on having the Stamina, Courage, and Intelligence to end, what should be called, "THE 12 DAY WAR." This is a War that could have gone on for years, and destroyed the entire Middle East, but it didn't, and never will! God bless Israel, God bless Iran, God bless the Middle East, God bless the United States of America, and GOD BLESS THE WORLD!

In a world desperate for true leadership and peace, President Trump's diplomatic efforts stand as a reminder that strength and conviction can indeed bring stability to even the most volatile regions. From the Middle East to Africa and Asia, his actions have not only prevented wars but have given nations a chance to rebuild and reconcile.

Whether or not the Nobel Committee recognizes it, millions around the world already see the fruit of these efforts. As believers, we are reminded to pray for our leaders and give thanks when peace prevails—because lasting peace, as Scripture tells us, is not merely man-made, but a reflection of God's hand at work through willing vessels.
