

Alabama Takes a Stand: Pride Flag Ban in the Works—Is This the Beginning of a Moral Turning Point?

Are we seeing the beginning phases of a moral, cultural overhaul in America for the sake of the gospel?

Recently, the state of Alabama has decided to take things back into their hands for families and for Christianity. One of the biggest changes? A call for the banning of pride flags in public schools.

The passage in the Alabama State House of HB244 is considered a great feat, including by faith leaders such as Pastor Travis Johnson.

“This is not going to be allowed in Alabama public schools anymore,” says Johnson. “Also, the pride flag, it’s like a LGBTQ battle flag, it’s an indoctrination flag celebrating transgenderism.”

Pray that godliness and morality truly are making their way back into the public sphere, and that we will see revival happen across America.

☐ALABAMA STATE HOUSE BANS THE PRIDE FLAG☐

One AL State Rep called it “the most conservative day I’ve witnessed in the AL State House.”

☐☐Thanks to all who raised awareness on this legislation.

Now, it’s in the hands of the AL Senate.
