

America Is on a Slippery Slope to Sharia Law

This month's terrorist attack in Garland, Texas, has sparked a national debate over free speech.

Political pundits and the mainstream media say Pamela Geller got what she asked for when she hosted that Muhammad cartoon competition.

Even more repulsive are the conservative commentators on television and radio who were spouting off from the same talking points.

As I explain in my video commentary below, America is on a slippery slope towards Sharia Law.
