

American Airlines Passenger Restrained With Duct Tape After Midair Outburst About Jesus and Hell

An American Airlines passenger was restrained with duct tape and zip ties after a violent midair disturbance forced a flight from Dallas-Fort Worth to Newark, New Jersey, to divert to Baltimore.

Arthur Lundeen, 67, of Arizona, was arrested after American Airlines Flight 618 landed at Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport on Thursday night, according to ABC News. Maryland Transportation Authority Police charged Lundeen with disorderly conduct and second-degree assault.