

Angels Among Us: Rabbi Schneider's Astonishing Encounter

Have you ever had a direct encounter with an angel?

In one of Rabbi Kirt Schneider's latest videos, he recounts the miraculous, angelic encounter he had during one of the most painful times of his life.

At the time of this encounter, Rabbi Schneider was carrying an unshakable pain deep within his soul—an inner torment he couldn't escape. Though he was a passionate follower of Jesus and had experienced the Lord's power, a lingering wound from his past kept him bound.

"One night in my sleep, I became aware of the pain that was in my soul," says Schneider. "I was in my bed and suddenly, it was like the veil of my soul had been torn open, and I felt excruciating pain in my soul."

Schneider says this pain was the worst he has ever felt, and has not experienced anything like it since then. He likened the feeling to having his soul separated, which allowed him to physically feel all of the torment built up inside of him.

"An angel spoke to me as I was feeling this incredible pain in my soul," says Schneider. "I was still sleeping, but I was aware, and an angel spoke to me in the depth of my pain. And in a really sweet and kind voice, the angel said to me, 'You're on the right path.'"

Schneider remembers asking the angel that if this was true, why there was so much pain involved.

"The angel sweetly said back to me, 'Maybe if you cooperate more, it wouldn't hurt so much.'"

After this, Schneider asked about when he would finally be happy, which ushered in a response from the Lord.

"He said to me, 'When you get strong. Then you'll be happy,'" he recounts.

Schneider's incredible testimony is a reminder that we will only ever find true joy and fulfillment when we cry out for the Holy Spirit to live and dwell within us each and everyday. We must ask the Lord to strengthen our inner man each and every day through the Holy Spirit. If the Holy Spirit's power is great enough to raise Jesus from the dead, then there's nothing impossible for Him to do in our own lives.
