

As Rosh Hashanah Ends, Nearly 80 Percent of Israelis Would Back Trump's Plan to End War

JERUSALEM, Israel – Many Israelis have one eye on the news developments as they celebrate the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Teruah or Feast of Trumpets holiday, which ends Wednesday at sundown.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is scheduled to leave for New York shortly after the holiday, where he will address the United Nations on Friday morning.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The announcement by several European leaders, Canada, and Australia that their countries would recognize a Palestinian state was tempered by President Donald Trump's United Nations address on Tuesday.

Order Jonathan Cahn's Newest Book, The Avatar, on !

While French President Emmanuel Macron called for the two-state solution to preserve the "global order," Trump strongly criticized globalism during his address, insisting, "The entire globalist concept of asking successful, industrialized nations to inflict pain on themselves and radically disrupt their entire societies must be rejected completely and totally – and it must be immediate," Trump said.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Trump also took to task the leaders who pushed the recognition of a Palestinian state this week. "Now, as if to encourage continued conflict, some of this body is seeking to unilaterally recognize a Palestinian state. This would be a reward for these horrible atrocities, including October 7th, even while they refuse to release the hostages," the president intoned.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

Concerning the war in Gaza, Trump stated, "Instead of giving in to Hamas' ransom demands, we should be united with those who want real peace and get the hostages back." He added, "We can't get one or two; we need everyone, dead or alive."

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2025 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.