

Ben Affleck Seeks Help, Redemption After Estranged Wife Jennifer Garner Arrives With Bible to Stage Intervention

Ben Affleck is heading back to rehab after his estranged wife, Jennifer Garner, asked him to go amid the actor's ongoing struggle with alcohol addiction.

On Wednesday, Garner appeared at the 46-year-old's home, accompanied by her lawyer and her Bible. According to the Daily Mail, Affleck did not argue and willingly decided to go to rehab.

Garner drove Affleck to a live-in rehab facility in Malibu called The Canyon Treatment Center, where he checked-in for an extended stay. The Canyon is a "state-of-the-art private-pay treatment program housed on 120 beautiful acres near the Malibu coastline" frequented by celebrities like Affleck.
