

Benny Hinn Announces Wedding Plans

Benny Hinn held a partner gathering in Orlando, Fla., on Monday night with the promise of “an exciting announcement” about his “upcoming wedding plans and future.”

Hinn and his ex-wife, Suzanne, first shared their reconciliation during a meeting at the World Media Center in Aliso Viejo just weeks ago.

The Hinns gathered together with partners at Calvary Assembly of God in Orlando on Monday night for what the healing evangelist called “a memorable night of miracles, fellowship and power.”

“And there, in the Hall Family Life Center, which used to be the sanctuary, where Suzanne and I first shared our wedding vows in 1979, we will be making an exciting announcement about our upcoming wedding plans and future,” he wrote in a letter to partners.

Charisma News tried to attend the event, but Kurt Kjellstrom, a Hinn employee, turned our reporter away. Kjellstrom told Charisma News the ministry would issue a statement.

Part of the agenda for the Monday night meeting included the Hinns praying and ministering to partners, believing for miracles and restoration.

“I know the Lord will be there in His mighty power. It will be an awesome, historic night,” Hinn wrote. “Come expecting a supernatural visitation of the Holy Spirit that will impact your life for years to come. And come also expecting His precious healing touch on your body and life.”

Charisma News will report more details as they become available.